Ms. Susan Atkinson, Porter Corridor Plan Project Manager, unveiled four streetscape designs to provide the public an opportunity to provide input and asked question about the various designs. The overall project I s being broken down into smaller pieces to develop the plan and this was just one piece of the project. Two regulatory pieces are planned for the corridor; an overlay zoning district and design guidelines. Ms. Atkinson explained that regulatory tools are important in a project of this magnitude.

Citizens reviewed the schematic designs and discussed details and options with staff, the consultant, and one another.

The open house adjourned at 6:00 p.m.
